Dear Capt. Clark —

I have asked Miss Patrick to hand you the manuscript of the accounts of the Vigilance Comte of Boston who ran the Underground Railroad You remember it is a gift of Mrs Henry N. Eder of Cambridge to the Bostonian.

I found that it would be expensive out of all reason to have a copy made so gave it up.

Yours sincerely

E. Channing Stowell

The Legal Committee of Vigilance Dr

Explanatory

On the 15th. Feb. 1851 Shadrach, a fugitive Slave from Virginia was arrested at the instance of John Caphart, a slave hunter from Norfolk Va. and taken before Commission Curtis, who after the adjournment of the first examination, was rescued from the Suffolk Court house, by the colored people, & sent to Canada; For this brave act, Lewis Hayden, Robert Morris, James Scott, & Elizur Wright, were arrested, & tried before Judge Sprague of the U.S. Court, & were all acquitted; the expenses of these trials, are herewith recorded, & were defrayed by donations & contributions, entered on the opposite pages of this book.

Hon. John P Hale, Richard H Dana Jr. & Geo. Farley were the Lawyers employed to defend the rescuers.
